

Bio for Mr. Chip:

Mr. Chip has been playing guitar for 50 years. As a seasoned musician, he has played in a varied assortment of classic rock cover bands, acoustic duos and trios. He currently plays guitar and sings in the local band Time Banditz.

Chip is well versed in a variety of styles including electric rock, acoustic rock, modern pop, country, fingerpicking, blues and a touch of jazz. He specializes in teaching rhythm & lead guitar to both new and more advanced students.

Whether you want to learn rock power chords, movable bar chords, simple strumming patterns or catchy rhythmic riffs, Chip enjoys taking a student in the direction they want to go in as they move along on their guitar journey.

He especially loves working with beginning students and the process of introducing his love of guitar, while taking the time and patience to turn the sometimes-frustrating learning process into an enjoyable experience!
